

How our Life or Critical Illness Cover compares

Against our competitors, our Life or Critical Illness Cover really stacks up.

This Aequos chart shows how our Life or Critical Illness Cover compares against similar products from our competitors. Using Defaqto's DNA scoring system you can compare the features that are important to your clients and find the right plan for them.

Our product is flexible, so you can combine different types of cover, different amounts and different terms in one plan. So when your client's needs change, you can update their plan by adding and removing covers, or by changing the ones they already have.
